Farmingville, NY – On March 16, Councilman Kevin LaValle (center) met with Girl Scout Unit 169 at Brookhaven Town Hall. The unit, which is based in Selden, was there to speak with the Councilman and learn more about Town government. The girls are working toward their citizenship and philanthropy badges. Councilman LaValle discussed his role in the community as an elected official.

Councilman LaValle said, "I was happy to spend time with the Girl Scouts at Town Hall. They asked some good questions and showed a great deal of interest in learning more about how government works."

The Girl Scouts was founded in 1912 with the principal that "all girls should be given the opportunity to develop physically, mentally, and spiritually."
